

SAFETY ALERT

Title:	Mains Power Installation
Date:	07/07/2023	Memo Ref	SM745114
Location:	QLD &amp; NSW – Building Supervisors, Electrical Contractors
Background	An incident occurred recently in NSW where a bricklayer suffered serious injuries when screwing a brick tie that went through the mains power conduit. The conduit had no mechanical protection (cover plate) installed. Please note that the incident did not occur at a Coral Homes site.

Direction to Coral Homes Employees and Electrical Contractors:	Please ensure the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Protective metal covers are installed over exposed conduit (See photo example below).</li> <li>• Stickers are installed indicating Live Power (See photo)</li> <li>• In ground electrical mains power supply is only run directly and vertically from ground to the switchboard.</li> </ul>

Authorised By:	Geoff Idzikowski	Position:	HSEQ Manager
Contact No:	0460 032 565	Date:	07.07.2023